

SUGGESTED ONLINE RESOURCES

www.elections.bc.ca - The official website of Elections BC. Includes information about voter registration, how to find your electoral district, B.C. election history, electoral reform, past election results, and a list of registered parties in British Columbia.

www.gov.bc.ca - The Government of British Columbia. Includes information about government structure and policies, links to all provincial government departments or ministries.

<http://www.leg.bc.ca/> - The Legislative Assembly of British Columbia website. Includes information about legislations, the Speaker, webcasts, documents and proceedings and public education. The Discover Your Legislature Resource Section is a great source of information, particularly for interesting interactive student games.

www.nodice.ca/elections/britishcolumbia/ - Nodice Election website. Includes a current list of ridings and nominated candidates, public opinion polls, past B.C. Premiers, current party leaders and registered parties.

www.mapleleafweb.com - The Maple Leaf website. Contains information about provincial elections, political guides ('how to run for office' and 'how to join a political party'), news headlines and interviews with politicians.

www.getyourvoteon.ca - Get Your Vote On. Youth focused election site features election surveys, text messaging polls, party platform information, related media clippings, event listings and opportunities for youth to get involved locally.

www.citizensassembly.bc.ca - The official web site of the Citizens' Assembly. Includes teaching resources and strategies, animations designed to explain SMP and BC-STV, fact sheets about both systems and related media clippings. The site has not been updated since 2005 but is still a great source of referendum-based materials.

www.nostv.ca - No STV. This is the official site advising against BC-STV, sponsored by Elections BC. The site features anti BC-STV news coverage, community events listings, FAQ's and STV analogies.

www.stv.ca - British Columbians for BC-STV. This is the official site advocating BC-STV, also sponsored by Elections BC. The site features informational videos, upcoming BC-STV events, FAQ's, media and blog links, and an online 'request a speaker' form.

www.bcstv.ca - Alumni site for the Citizens' Assembly. Includes information about BC-STV and electoral reform, and how to invite a former Citizens' Assembly member to your school.

www.gov.bc.ca/referendum\_info - The Referendum Information website, hosted by the provincial government's website. Provides details about the referendum on electoral reform, information on the current electoral system and information on the BC-STV system recommended by the Citizens' Assembly in 2005.

<http://understandingstv.ca/>. Understanding STV. This non-partisan website provides a very simplistic explanation of how the BC-STV system operates.
